ABOUT JGSLI

The Jewish Genealogy Society of Long Island, Inc. was founded in 1985 to bring together and help people interested in pursuing their Jewish family history.

Membership benefits include:

- A subscription to our award winning publication, Lineage, which keeps members informed about new resources and techniques, as well as materials of interest to Jewish genealogists
- E-mailings on the latest developments and events via our monthly electronic newsletter, JGSLI Online
- Discounts on publications and programs
- Help, advice, and a link to others searching their roots.

MEETINGS

Our monthly meetings are generally held on Sunday afternoons at various locations on Long Island, mostly at the Mid-Island JCC, 45 Manetto Hill Road Plainview, NY. Meetings feature expert speakers, roundtable discussions, and occasional field trips. All offer the opportunity to network informally, ask questions of our mavens and learn from others. Visitors are always welcome. See our website for a current calendar and directions to locations.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Library - JGSLI's large genealogical reference collection is available at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, 999 Old Country Road, Plainview.

Family History Workshop – Designed for those looking to explore genealogy and family history, Genealogy 101 is designed for those starting to explore genealogy and family history, as well as those brushing up on new ideas. Held in early November, the cost includes annual membership.

Members' names and addresses may be published in our newsletter, listed in our membership directory, and/or selectively provided to other organizations for mailings of genealogical significance. If you do not want your name and/or address included in any of these listings, please specify:
